

Down the Drain

words & music: Tobias Panwitz

Five years going down the drain
I'm so uncomfortably numb
I can't even feel the pain
It's a common necessity
Something everyone goes through
No exception made for me

And my sleep's as dark as night
No dream turns on a light
And I'd give anything, even for a nightmare
Some subconscious mutiny
But there's nothing left to face for me
My insides lay open and bare

Come let's waste the day away
And while we're at it, tomorrow too
It feels just like the thing to do
If reality is what we see
Then put your hands over my eyes
And paint a picture with your lies

Cause my sleep's as dark as night ...

And I'm wondering
Am I old now or just calming down
Cause even one thing
I still care for is hard to be found

I can walk for days and days
Make it a month or a year
Nothing much keeps me here
This is how it once used to be
But now I won't change a thing
I just endure anything
