

Sun upon my neck

words & music: Tobias Panwitz

Lately I've been feeling the sun upon my neck
Like a memory returning, an old friend coming back
And one year's sleep falls out of my eyes

You're giving me that look that makes me want you back in bed
And strip you naked from all sorrows you've ever had
We can make the sun even shine inside

Take me away, isn't that what people always say
When life catches up, with the dreams we promised never to give up
For adaptations to situations

The way I'm stuck in this here town feels like a curse
Well I suppose that any other place must be even worse
And ego speak is not my kind of tongue

Well, way up north I know an island in the sun
Well no one knows that place and no one there knows where I'm from It's the one good thing that keeps me hanging on

Take me away, isn't that what people always say
When life catches up, with the dreams we promised never to give up

Take me away, isn't that what people always say
When life catches up, with the dreams we promised not to give up, oh

Take me away, isn't that what people always say
When life catches up, with the dreams we promised never to give up
For adaptations to situations
For adaptations to situations