

Yours And Mine

words & music: Tobias Panwitz

Watch the day begin to shine
It's yours and mine, yours and mine
Watch the song revolve around a rhyme
It's gonna be yours and mine, yours and mine

And who could tell how it begins
Hell if I know
You watch the birds return in spring
And off you go
You catch a spark it starts to sing
Right in your head

Watch the leafs turn brown in fall
It's what they do, it's not up to you
And you hear your mind's crazy call
It's gonna get to you if you let it through

And who could tell how it begins
Hell if I know
You watch the birds return in spring
And off you go
You catch a spark it starts to sing
Right in your head

And do you really wanna know
What it all means
You wanna figure this one out
Maybe in your dreams
You write them down to make some sense
Good luck my friend

Watch the day begin to shine
It's yours and mine, yours and mine
Watch the song evolve around a rhyme
It's gonna be yours and mine, yours and mine
It's gonna be yours and mine, yours and mine