(words & music by Tobias Panwitz)

Acoustic guitar played in open E tuning on orig. recording

A B E A B E

Verse 1

A B E
Far away from me again you went
A B E
To rejoin the folks in your homeland
f# A
Just when I began to fall
A B E
For the way you don't return my calls

Verse 2

But it's alright cause I'm not all alone
Got all your sent messages on my phone
But it's not quite the same
But once you know them all by heart that's pretty lame

Chorus 1

g# A f#
And just like static in the atmosphere your voice keeps coming back to me
B
Like I wish you'd be
g# A f#
And I will turn you into something I can waste my love on, far off from reality
B E A ... into solo
Where I wish you'd be

Solo / like verse A B E, A B E, f# A, A B E

Chorus 2

And I know one day you'll come back and I'll find out who you really are Just a minor star
And that's when all of my commitments and my vows will start to fall apart
and the tough part starts

Verse 3

Babe, I can't wait to cut the romance crap
To see if we are really up for that
When I let go of you and you of me
A E
And we'll live on each others company

Chorus 1 (2 times)
