

Sidelane

words & music: Tobias Panwitz

Side lane again
This feels like a dead end
But it's just another bend
Bringing me around again

And I'm losing it I think
I'm not in control no more
Where I will be tonight
And what I am in this for
Out again on the side lane
Stuck again on the side lane

Send me a thought
Mail it by air on a breeze
I'm sure it gets to me
Cause everything is still around here

Just like back in spring
When I felt the sun shine from your hand
And I wish I'd miss you less
And love you more than I can
Out again on the side lane
Stuck again on the side lane

Pick a way for me
North west or south, I don't care
East sounds good to me
You said I'd find you there

And the further down I go
The more I hope to find
But the only thing so far
I'm leaving further behind
