

Now that you're two words & music: Tobias Panwitz

Yes I've been here before
Half blind and hungry for more
And since I've been back again
I can't even feel you my friend

Now that you're two
There is just no way I'll come back to you
Now that you're two
I finally know just what to do

This place has set us free
And opens up to those who can see
Like I still see your eyes
Where the water meets the blue of the sky

Now that you're two

....

Well I think that I can stay
(Finally know just what to do)
Now that you stopped running away
(Finally know just what to do)

Waves keep rolling by I'm half asleep but I try
To focus on a memory
A girl and a moment that's real
